

Blended Emergency First Aid at Work – e-module details

This course enables you to do 2 hours pre-learning online followed by a 4-hour face to face session to cover all the practical elements of the course. It is fully compliant with HSE criteria for Emergency First Aid at Work

Topics include:

Roles and Responsibilities of a First Aider	CPR and AED (defibrillator)
Incident and Casualty Assessment and Reporting	Choking
Dealing with an Unconscious Casualty	Seizures
Asthma	Shock
Minor Injuries	Burns
Eye, Ears and Nose injuries	External Bleeding

ELEARNING FEATURES

- Our online module appeals to all learning styles with interactive quizzes, video and audio features
- It allows you to work at your own pace, testing your knowledge as you progress through the course
- It provides a very thorough resource for those with English as a Second Language, giving you the vocabulary, language skills and confidence to pass the practical course.

Assessment*: Knowledge checks after each section of the course and an end of course multiple choice assessment

Certification: On successful completion, learners can download a certificate as evidence that they have passed the course

Accreditation: This course has been approved by the FAIB (First Aid Industry Body)